The Build Show with Matt Risinger features Legalett's GEO-Passive Super Insulated Foundation and Air-Heated Floors in CO

Matt Risinger from The Build Show Interviews Truewerk's CEO as he builds his own Super Insulated and Energy Efficient Home in Colorado with Legalett GEO-Passive Shallow Slab Foundation

Matt Risinger is an online video sensation and homebuilder based in Austin, Texas. His building science blog covers many subjects related to construction and he's recently been talking to the homeowner, Legalett fan and owner of Truewerk Build Gear, Brian Ciciora, on The Build Show. Watch the video on YouTube below, talking about Brian's home which is located in the extreme climate of the Colorado mountains and that benefits from the comfort of a Legalett air heated radiant floor and foundation
